Money Flowed as Freely as Water

IN ELECTIONS IN MANITOBA

In Constituencies Where Government Exerted Its Effort to Defeat Opposition Candidate, it Succeeded—Means of Achieving This Not Above Suspicion.

Winnipeg, Mar. 8—Yesterday's elections were a defeat of Mr. Brown's heroic efforts to introduce a purer standard of political methods and a postponement of his intention to form a government which would be honest and straightforward, dealing with public affairs entirely on their merits. In the meantime the Roblin party have a further lease of power, but with a reduced majority. The Liberals having secured five additional seats, increased their representation to 13 in a house of 41. It is a striking fact that wherever the Conservatives made a dead set upon an opposition candidate they inevitably won. The Liberal leader was beaten in Portage la Prairie by 226. Horace Cherrier had a majority of 71 against him, according to the returns. William Lagimodiere, who had made himself obnoxious, was ousted from Lavesandre. The means whereby they achieved this are not above suspicion. Hon. D. H. McFedden, provincial secretary, was committed to political oblivion by the electors of Emerson, which seat he has occupied in the house for many years, George Walton triumphing over him with a majority of 98. The result in Morris, which created so much interest, and where Attorney General Campbell fought with desperation for his political existence, the result at an early hour this morning was still in doubt, as the returns were incomplete, two small polls being missing. Without them, Dr. Malloy, Lib. oral, is leading by two, but the attorney general claims a majority of four at the missing polls, which, if correct, will suffice him to retain his seat. The Liberals predicge amid a humble majority of two. E. A. August, the Liberal candidate in Differing, after a whirlwind canvass cut the premier's majority from 419 to 269. Hon. J. H. Agnew was the only member of the cabinet who was not discredited on his own seat and in Virden the provincial treasurer's personal popularity raised his majority from 25 to 109. The Liberals succeeded in retaining only Birtle, Rhineland and Russell of the seven seats they held prior to dissolution, but they gained Dauphin, Deloraine, Emerson, Gladstone, Lansdowne Morden, Mountain, Springfield and Westbourne, a total of nine seats, which gives them 12 representatives in the next legislature. The Conservatives gaining were St. Boniface, Laverandrye, Killdonan and St. Andrews, and Assiniboia, a total of four. Final returns from Gimlet thur have not been received, but it has been conceded to the government, as Lyle is leading by 70 with the last poll to hear from. This is expected to reduce his lead, but it will scarcely wipe it out.

HOPELESSLY DEMENTED.

Pitiful Plight of Aged Man on Train at Medicine Hat.

Medicine Hat, March 7.—David Hyndman, an old gentleman from Kemptville, Ont., enroute to Vancouver, was taken from No. 97 on Tuesday evening in a hopelessly demented condition. He had over $100 in cash and a letter of credit for over $6,000 on his person and is being held by the mounted police until his nearest-kin, Wm. Crosby, arrives from Howard, Sask.

LABOR OPPOSED TO SUNDAY LAW.

In British Columbia—Refuse to Assist in Enforcing New Act.

Victoria, Mar. 8—The Victoria Trades and Labor Council last night declined to join the local branch of the Lord's Day Alliance in a proposed attempt to secure the enforcement of the Dominion Sunday law. A committee consisting of Messrs. Gosnell and Cowell will see Premier McBride tomorrow, but the local laborers went on record as bitterly opposed to the new law.

ARE PLANNING LINES TO CALGARY

Three New Connections Claimed by Albertan—Great Northern to Reach City by Way of Fernie—Short Route to Winnipeg.

The Albertan is informed on authority which it claims is of the most reliable nature that though the Great Northern railway has abandoned its proposed Canadian extension for the present, at least, it is still making plans for a line into Calgary.

Contrary to current reputations the new line will not run by way of Lethbridge. The Hill line does not own the coal mining into that city and has a lease upon it. The Hill line ends at Sweet Grass, Montana. The new line will run by way of Fernie, and run by the shortest route. It is believed that it will suffice for to the west of the Calgary and Macleod road.

Great Northern men have been in the city recently investigating conditions and seem to have been satisfied with the outlook.

The Albertan is also informed that the Grand Trunk Pacific will build the line from their main line into Calgary simultaneously with their line into Edmonton; that the road will be into Calgary as early as into Edmonton; that the line from Calgary to the south and the east will be no longer than from Edmonton to Winnipeg and the east, and that under present conditions it seems unlikely that the road will be in Alberta before 1909.

The announcement of Mr. James of the Canadian Northern that that line will be in Regina from Brandon next year is an interesting one to Calgary as it is generally understood that the C. N. R. line, which is now being run to Calgary, will go in by way of Regina.

It is possible, perhaps probable, that the next railway to be built to Calgary will be the Great Northern. It is more than probable that the Grand Trunk on arriving in Calgary will find three roads ahead of it.

LOCAL.

The estimates of the cost of the construction of Edmontons street railway will be presented to the council at its informal meeting to be held next Tuesday evening. The figures will not be made public until after tenders are received. It is claimed that the publication of the estimates might influence the figures of he contractors tendering for the construction work.

The city council last night decided to increase the salary of the superintendent of the stores department to $110 per month, a raise of $10 per month.

Short, Wilson and Mackenzie, three exmayors, were present at the special meeting of council last night, the two former being interested in the Northwest Gas Co.'s application for a renewal of its franchise.

— DARING HOLD-UP IN MOSCOW.

Chancellory was Relieved of $290,000 and Police Sergeant Killed.

Moscow, Mar. 8—A daring hold up occurred at the university here yesterday. While the officials were being paid off in the chancellory seven armed men entered, threatened all present with pistols and demanded money. The intruders then fired in the air, seized $290,000 and escaped, after killing a sergeant of police, whom they met at the door, and who was about to enter the building. The miscreants were surrounded by the police and all the houses in the vicinity are being searched.

THE WOMAN WAS JEALOUS.

Her Colored Paramour Resented it and Shot Her.

Montreal, Mar. 8—Want of harmony may have been the cause of a shooting affray last night in a house at 152 St. Antoine street. May Brown, aged 32, and John Miner, colored, aged 42, were living there. A row started, due, according to the police, to the jealousy of the woman. The black man threw her down on the floor and fired several shots at her, one of which took effect in the chest. The woman was removed to the general hospital. She will likely recover. After the dead affray was apparently conscience stricken and attempted to shoot himself, but the revolver failed to go off. He then succeeded in escaping.

To Nationalize The Coal Lands

GOVERNMENT WILL CONTROL FIELDS

In the West—Lessees of Past Winter Impressive—Arrogant Coal Barons and Speculators no Longer to tie up Coal Resources and Restrict Production.

Ottawa, Mar. 7—An order in council has been passed suspending the present regulations regarding coal lands. This is a preliminary introduction to the new regulations abolishing the system of selling coal rights and leasing to miners unconditionally. In future coal lands will not be sold, but the government will retain ownership in its own hands and lease on condition that mines must be worked.

The government proposes to retain either the title or control of the coal and all lands of the West not already alienated.

The failure of the mines and railways to meet the fuel famine of the past season in the West has enforced in a practical way the necessity for some remedy for existing conditions.

NEW BRUNSWICK'S NEW CABINET.

Fredericton, March 7.—Dr. Pugsley, who was called to form a cabinet, announced the members of the new government as follows: Dr. Pugsley, premier and attorney general; C. H. Labillois, commissioner of public works; L. P. Farris, agriculture; W. J. Jones, solicitor general; F. J. Sweeney, surveyor general; C. W. Robinson without portfolio. C. J. Osman becomes speaker.

FOUND HER BOTTOM UP.

San Francisco, March 8.—The mystery of the disappearance of the schooner Dorothy C. was cleared up yesterday by the steamer Toronite, Capt. Obrrieon, which arrived from the Oregon coast bound to this city with the shore when he let her go. Hoyt is not longer entertained that Capt. Lazarkovich and the crew of eight men escaped drowning when the vessel was lost. The Benzil K. sailed from Coquille River, Oregon, for San Francisco, February 24, with lumber.

THE KENEL CLUB.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a Kennel Club for the Edmonton District was held on Friday evening. There were present a number of those interested in raising a club and also H. P. D. Walker who acted as judge at the show and Mr. Roden, Secretary of the Albertan Kennel Club, both gentlemen being from Calgary. Mr. Roden outlined the steps preliminary to the formation of the southern city club and gave pointers for a similar organization here. It was decided to hold a general meeting shortly when the election of officers will take place.

FIRE IN HOUSE BOY ALL ALONE

Blaze in Log House on Twelfth Street This Morning—House Was Home of Three Families—7 Year Lad the Only Occupant at the Time.

Crawling through a window and rushing down the snow-covered street in his bare feet, Jack White, the little seven-year-old son of Louis White, who lived in a log house opposite the Misericordia Hospital this forenoon aroused the news that the house was in flames.

A telephone alarm was sent in from the hospital, and despite the distance from the fire hall to Eleventh street, the brigade were soon at the house. The fire inside, however, was well under way, and nothing could be done to save the interior. All that the firemen could remained but the shell of what formerly was the dwelling place of three families.

The fire is supposed to have started from some inflammable material being stored in the room in which it was the only occupant, and he did what he could to immediately give the alarm.

The families who occupied the building were Gib Anderson and his wife in the main part and one, Blair, in the rear room. The former were also Louis White and his two sons. The bedroom section was completely gutted and all the furniture destroyed, while that in the Blair lean-to was saved.

Corporations Must Bear Share

OF THE TAXES OF THIS PROVINCE

Premier's Bill Providing for the Taxing of Corporations Passed Through Committee of the Whole—It is Based on Similar Laws in Other Provinces.

The corporations have no obsequious apologists in the legislature of Alberta. It took just six minutes to pass the premier's bill taxing corporations and others through the committee of the whole house yesterday afternoon. The bill had been distributed for a number of days and the House was prepared to pass it.

The premier moved the second reading of the bill and asked leave to have the bill inserted in the orders of the day to be considered by the committee of the whole. The bill follows upon the lines of similar laws in force in other provinces in the Dominion, and as the premier said Alberta must keep abreast with every advanced legislation of our generation.

The Protection of Game.

The game bill which has been the source of much contentious discussion during several sittings of the committee was practically disposed of and almost ready for the third reading. The bill however, will come up before the committee again today for the insertion of a clause to define a close season for prairie chicken after the 16th day of September, 1906. As the bill now stands no chicken may be shot before the above date.

Resident's License.

Section sixteen dealing with residents' licenses has been amended whereby no resident shall be required to take out a resident's big game license, which will cost $2.50. This shall not apply to a person while hunting on his own land or to those north of latitude fifty-five.

Reports of Standing Committees.

Mr. Mackenzie, chairman of the committee on municipal law, reported the Greater Calgary bill to the House with amendments. The bill was before the municipal committee yesterday morning for Hall, city solicitor for Calgary, was present on behalf of the bill. The differences between the city officials and the manufacturers have been adjusted. The new agreement is that the land use for manufacturing purposes shall be assisted at a flat rate of assessment of $3,000 per acre for the first ten years and $5,000 for the succeeding ten years Lands used for agricultural purposes shall be assessed at $50 an acre until subdivided.

The bill will come up for its second reading today.

Third Readings.

The following bills were read a third time and passed:

Hon. Mr. Cross—A bill respecting agreement between Edmonton and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Co.

Hon. Mr. Cushing—A bill respecting railways.

Mr. Riley (Gleichen)—A bill respecting Calgary and Knee Hill Railway Company.

Hon. Mr. Cross—A bill to amend Chapter 28 of consolidated ordinances.

Corporations Escape No Longer.

Speaking of the second reading of the bill the premier made a few observations as to justification of the principle of the bill. The government were following the precedent established in other provinces. In Ontario and Quebec a corporation tax was imposed a few years ago, as was also the case in Manitoba. The government's bill mainly followed the lines on which the Manitoba corporation tax law was drawn.

Tax on Banks.

The tax on banks will be $400 for each head office. This is half of the rate fixed by the Manitoba government. Branches are taxed $200 for the first four and any number in excess of four at the rate of $100. Banks shall be taxed for more than one agency in a town or city.

Private Banks.

Every private bank outside of a village shall pay $500. In villages the tax is $25 for each branch in the province.

Insurance Companies.

Insurance companies shall pay one per cent. on the gross premiums in respect of business transacted in the province. In case of mutual fire companies receiving premiums in cash the tax shall be calculated on the gross premiums received in cash on the insurance transacted on the cash plan. Where such cash receipts are from premiums of a company whose head office is outside the province is less than $20,000 and where such company shall pay a tax of three-quarters of one per cent. on gross premiums, and one-half of one per cent. on the income from the investments in the province.

Loan Companies.

The tax on loan companies is as follows: Companies with paid up capital of $100,000 or less, $100, and $75 on each additional $100,000.

Companies with withdrawable capital, $25 on the first $25,000 or fraction thereof, and twenty cents for each additional $1,000.

Companies buying and selling land, $50 unless the unpaid purchase money shall exceed $50,000.

Where a loan company employs only a part of its funds in Alberta the tax shall be calculated upon the same proportion of the total capital of the company up to one million five hundred thousand dollars, as the total investments of the company in Alberta bear to the total investments of the company in all its fields of operation.

Trust Companies.

Trust companies will be taxed $100 there paid-up capital is one hundred thousand dollars or less, and $50 for every additional $100,000. Where the gross earnings are over $25,000 an additional $50 shall be charged. The minimum rate for any trust company under $100,000 shall be $50.

Railways Taxed Too.

The tax for electric railways is $200 a year where the line is 20 miles or less, and $10 for each additional mile. In all cases notice shall be required to be single track.

Telegraphs and Telephones.

Telegraphs are required to pay $5 a mile, while railway companies operating telegraph lines shall pay $1,000. The limitation clause does not apply to the whole or part when such lines are used exclusively for the despatch of trains and railway purposes.

The telephone tax is 50 cents a 'phone in cities with 10,000 population, or over; three quarters in towns and villages, 25 cents a 'phone.

Gas Companies.

Every company in the province supplying and manufacturing gas for illuminating purposes, or other purposes of a like shall pay:

Electric Lighting Companies.

Electric lighting companies in the province engaged in supplying electricity for illuminating or other purposes for gain, shall annually pay the following tax, that is to say: In cities containing a population of ten thousand or over, $500; in cities possessing a population of under ten thousand, $100; in incorporated towns and villages, $25; but this provision shall not be applicable to any electric works owned and operated by a municipality.

Express Companies.

Every express company doing or being concerned in the express business in the province of Alberta, pursuant to any traffic arrangement or agreement with another express or other company, shall annually pay the following tax, every such company having fifty and not exceeding one hundred branch offices, $500; every such company having over one hundred branch offices, $1,000: provided that in no case shall the tax payable by any express company be a less sum than $250.

Deposits at Interest.

Every corporation or joint stock company, which receives money on deposit at interest in Alberta, shall in addition to all other taxes under this act pay an annual tax as follows: On deposits up to 100,000, one-tenth of one per cent. on each additional $100,000 of deposits, or part thereof, up to one million dollars, three-fifths of one per cent. on deposits at the end of the preceding calendar year.

Nothing under this act become a first lien on the assets of the company. Provision is made in the bill for annual statements and returns from every corporation doing business in the province.

GRITS WON BOTH BY-ELECTIONS

In Quebec—Dr. Laurier Didn't Use His Family Name.

Montreal, Mar. 8—Returns yesterday in the federal by-elections in l'Assomption and Richelieu give two Liberal victories. Dr. Laurier defeated Lemay, Conservative, in l'Assomption, by 215. The contest drew out a heavy vote, as both candidates had a strong following. The Liberal policy of Dr. Laurier, not to speak of his family name, proved invincible. In Richelieu there was no Conservative running and as often happens two Liberals wanted to go to Ottawa, but Mr. Lanctot, the government candidate, defeated Mr. Rondeau, Independent Liberal.

Rev. J. Neil, of Newmarket, Ont., has been invited to become pastor of Medicine Hat Methodist church this year.

Two Noted Dogs.

Holyrood Conquest, a beautiful collie belonging to Mrs. Hodden, of Calgary, has a history as a successful dog. Bred by Col. McEwen in Ontario he was exhibited at the Westminster dog show in New York in 1905. There, with his brother he took the first prize as the best pair of Scotch collies bred on this side of the ocean. Conquest came in for much merited admiration. A little boy in Scotch attire was so attracted by the intelligent dog that he wrote a sonnet of an "apostrophe" to him.

Another dog who belongs to a famous dog family and promises to add distinction to the family-tree is the fox-terrier, Aldon Deserter, full brother of Aldon Dale. The famous little fox-terrier who has carried off 25 first prizes.

Deserter had a quaint way of running to meet the visitors who thoroughly appreciated the dainty little fellow. He is owned by A. E. Scobie, of this city.

Still another dog of note is Mr. Austin de Winter's, who was bred by James Cole, of Kansas City. He has taken first prize among English setters at St. Louis, Chicago, San Jose, Seattle, Vancouver and other exhibitions.

Some Edmonton Dogs.

Mr. Irwin's Irish setter, a lazy, dignified, handsome old dog, who took a second prize, looked out on the steam with curious visitors with proud indifference. His manner was only equalled by the fine old staghound farther down the line, who absolutely declined to respond to the friendly advances of visitors. He was old and red and kingly, if he was only a dog.

Another thoroughbred whose attentions were as prized as they were charily given was Mr. Charles May's mastiff. Only ten months old—but a fine animal with clear-cut, powerful head and limbs and an affectionate eye that guaranteed no cruel use of his great strength when he is fully grown. There was quiet contempt in the manner when he looked out on the excitable, noisy collie near him and then turned in majestic fashion to take his repose. Mr. Gallagher's pointer was a bright, pleasing little dog, with numbers of good points.

The Dalmatians, in all the glory of their spotted hide were handsome in the way an old fashioned picture may be handsome, recalling the old days when they were the correct accompaniment to a fashionable turnout. Near these was "Dainty," a cute little cocker spaniel who made lovely eyes at everybody in impartial favor, and won lavish praise for her affectionate ways. Up the line a first prize black spaniel belonging to Mr. Kirby, of Calgary, and its neighbor, a white pet, were an interesting pair.

A gentle brown retriever, a prize winner also, came in for as much admiration as her older black neighbor did for protest. He and a brave Scotch collie in the next section kept up a din of barking that would waken the Seven Sleepers if they had ever emigrated to Edmonton.

Mr. Hodden's collies took the special prize as the best collie dog at the show but in the casual visitor there saw a much to admire in some of those exhibited by A. W. Wilson, of Nanse. His breed of Scotch pedigreed collies made a superb showing. These long silky hairs their handsome heads and Vera de Vere manner shall without jar in keeping with their pedigrees. Small boys loved this kennel of dogs, for their beauty and their understanding of caresses which they did not seek but honored the visitor in accepting.

Another delightful portion of the show was that occupied by Mr. Johnson's little collie pups—a group of silky, bright eyed beauties that sold quickly, though how the owner could part with them is more than small boy or the Bulletin could understand.

There were other dogs—terriers, pointers, setters, collies, retrievers—the dog all of them. The choice of Alberta prophice, they were a delight to the dog lovers who "spoke with them" as the small Scotch laddie said.

Settled The Street Car Route

CITY COUNCIL APPROVED LINE

To Run on Jasper, St. Catherine to Government, on First, Jasper to Isabella on Namayo, Jasper to Norwood, and on Isabella First to Namaye.

The route of the initial six miles to be constructed in the city's street railway system was definitely fixed at a special meeting last evening, of the council, called for the purpose.

On Jasper it will run from St. Catherine to Government, on First from Jasper to Isabella, on Namayo from Jasper to Norwood boulevard, and on Isabella from First to Namayo. Only in the case of Jasper was the recommendations of the commissioners as to the route completely carried out. The proposals of the commissioners for the other streets were either extended or curtailed, and a different loop was also decided upon.

By taking up the report of the commissioners clause by clause the work of reaching a decision as to the route was facilitated.

An unexpected opposition to the route on Jasper was met in a largely signed petition presented by ex-Mayor Short, asking that the line be extended east to the city park along the river bank. The idea in the minds of the petitioners was that this extension would permit of a connection with the Clover Bar coal mines. To run the line to the mines and thus provide shipping facilities, Mr. Short declared, would save $1 on every ton of coal which came into the city. He figured that in a year a sufficient saving would be saved to pay for the extra cost of constructing the street railway. He advised the council that the men who were interested in the project were willing to assist in raising a sufficient sum to build a bridge over Rat Creek. He pointed out that if the council adopted the commissioners' route the Grand Trunk with nineteenths of the money interests of the city. He did not mean by this that it was a selfish one, but that it was not an attempt to benefit the East end of the city.

The principle of the petition received the support of the council, but it was explained by the mayor that only six miles of railway would be laid this year. This precluded the adoption of the suggestion.

Ald. Walker raised another point to be considered in connection with the suggestion of the petitioners, when he pointed out that after Rat Creek was crossed a franchise might have to be secured to Strathcona before the line could run to the city limits. He believed, however that the extension would pay the city.

As a matter of fact the extension proposed was contemplated by the commissioners in drawing up their report.

In moving to amend the First street recommendation to run to Isabella instead of Government, Ald. Jaraspy had in mind the extension of the line along Isabella to Namayo. He was not convinced that the railway would be a paying venture, but if it did ultimately pay it would do so only by serving the most congested sections of the city.

The mayor admitted the commissioners were convinced the line on First from Churchill north to Edmiston would not of itself be remunerative, but the commissioners had looked toward the completion of the loop to be formed with a connection on Edmiston from the Namayo line.

With the exception of Ald. Picard the aldermen all favored the amendment.

It was decided to extend the Namayo line to Norwood boulevard instead of Sutherland for various reasons.

Ald. Smith pointed out that Namayo was the only one through street to the Grand Trunk proposed yards.

Ald. MacCauley further argued that an excellent and desirable view of the city could be obtained from Norwood boulevard. Ald. Anderson drew attention to the fact that the extension would provide a convenient service for meeting the C. N. R. trains.

The mayor advanced an implied objection to the route in the council that the proposed route of the Grand Trunk Pacific would cross the extension at two points.

"What arrangement has the city with the Grand Trunk in reference to crossings?" asked Ald. Walker. "Will they have overhead or level crossings?"

"There is no arrangement," replied the mayor.

"It is by no means certain the Grand Trunk intends to lay the line into the city," put in Ald. Anderson.

"If they carry out their agreement they will," said the mayor.

"They will probably secure running rights over the C. N. R.," Ald. Anderson further declared.

This ended the discussion on the lines to be laid this year.

Before adjourning Ald. Walker made a motion, purporting to lay down the policy of the enlarged street railway system he had in mind, and the effect that the next extension should be on Syndicate from Jasper to Norwood boulevard, thence westerly to Namaye, which, when the line on the latter avenue was produced, would form an important belt line.

Ald. Daly moved that curves be ordered for Namayo and Syndicate. Ald. Glariepy advised the substitution of Na-

CLEVELAND MEN TO GET FRANCHISE

The Proposed Gas By-Law Considered Last Night by the Strathcona Town Council—The Period Changed From Thirty to Twenty Years.

A special meeting of the Strathcona town council was held last night, to further consider the granting of a franchise to the International Light & Heating Co. of Cleveland, Ohio. There were present the mayor, Councillors Rankin, Elliot, McFarland, Hulbert and the representative of the Company, Mr. Eaton. After reading the minutes of the previous special meeting on last Monday night the council went into committee of the whole, with Councillor Hulbert in the chair, to consider the by-law submitted to the company for ratification.

There was considerable discussion on the different clauses. On Clause 1, making the franchise for thirty years, it was pointed out that the proposed franchise that Edmonton was to give was only for twenty years. This is owing to the fact that the city charter will not permit of a longer one. Mayor Mills moved that the Strathcona franchise be changed to twenty years. The motion was seconded by Councillor Elliott and carried.

A number of alterations were made in the 14 clause of the ordinance, and the option of purchase at the expiration of twenty years was struck out, as the franchise was limited to that time.

The clause making it compulsory to start operations within eight months was changed to seven months after the passing of the by-law.

The price clauses were also discussed at considerable length and the entire by-law, as amended, adopted. An agreement will be drawn up in accordance with the terms set out and submitted to the entire council for approval. A motion to this effect was moved by Councillor Hulbert, seconded animously.

TO APPOINT SALARIED SECRETARY

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade next Monday evening the appointment of the new secretary to the board of trade will be made. The salary attached is $1000 and a large number of applications have been received during the last few days. The new secretary will be required to give his entire time to the work of the board in promoting the interests of the town. A substantial grant will be made by the town council towards defraying the expenses in connection with the publicity campaign.

A PRACTICAL PHILANTHROPY.

There is a possibility that Edmonton may have an opportunity in May to see the work of the Canadian Handicrafts' Guild. An exhibition of goods made in Canadian cottages will likely be brought here, if the Guild has not already too many requests for exhibits to fill this.

Dublin and Australia are added this year to the long list of Canadian and American exhibits made in previous years, and the band of honorary workers in Montreal are kept exceedingly busy.

The officers of the Guild this year are:—

Patrons—Their Excellencies, the Earl and Countess of Grey.
Hon. president—Lord Strathcona.
Hon. vice-president—Sir Melbourne Tait.
President—Miss Phillips.
First vice-president—Mrs. Peck.
Second vice-president—Lady Tait.
Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Molson.
Recording secretary—Mrs. W. D. Lighthall.
Treasurer—Franklin Hibbert, Esq.
Committee—Mrs. Chaffee, Mrs. Armstrong, Lady Hingston, Mesdames Nichol, Alex. Wonds, Rowley and Robertson; Judge Sicotte, Messrs. Harry Molson, H. B. Ames, A. D. Durnford, Dr. J. C. Cameron.

This work to revive, develop and market Canadian handicrafts, is in reality a national movement—one deliciously compounded of practical merits and poetry. It was originated by women and, although some prominent men of Montreal are members of the committee, it is still mostly controlled by women.

It aims, without any personal profit to the members, to revive and develop the handicrafts and art industries throughout Canada, to encourage the home industries of new settlers, and provide a market for them. It is not a work of charity—this Canadian Handicrafts' Guild—but rather a forestaste of the commercial millenium, a business conducted on business principles for the benefit of others than the immediate workers. The really remarkable feature of this philanthropic undertaking is that it has lived up to its aims and succeeded beyond expectations.

From the tentative efforts of the first year, when $300 worth of homespun was sold, it has within five years grown to such extent that last year $3,000 worth of goods passed out of the shop in the first half of the year alone—the finest homespun coming from Quebec and Nova Scotia looms. The Guild has succeeded in making homespun modish again, and the golf girl or yachting enthusiast goes now to her recreation in a jaunty costume such as her great-grandmother might have worn in pioneer days.

* * *

The idea of handicrafts' revival grew out of conferences between Mrs. James H. Peck and Miss Phillips, officers of the Montreal branch of the Woman's Art Association, at a time when interest in the diffuse art association needed a tonic.

This was provided in the Handicrafts' scheme. Taken up energetically by several women, it soon embraced the work of country women in every province. Doukhobor and Galician women send embroideries; Indian women, baskets and bead-work. None but work of a high standard is accepted, and the old colonial designs are wonderfully well adapted to portieres and rugs for bachelors' apartments, for boudoirs and home sitting rooms.

The work grew at such a rate that over a year ago it became "mistress in its own house," separating finally from the Montreal Woman's Art Association. Exhibitions are sent out frequently and summer from the headquarters in Montreal, a delightful studio-shop that is a revelation of what can be done in Canadian cottages—a cosy upper room, inducing visions of Canadian Priscillas and Penelopes, of their spinning wheels and drifts of snowy wool.

Besides meeting the Guild's art teachers occasionally in the field all its clients come by letter into communication with the manager of the studio. So the letters to the Guild are more than a record of dollars and cents for so many yards of homespun.

They contain fine touches of human interest—glimpses into the lives of lonely women, who feel that this Guild in the old metropolis is made up of sister-Canadians sympathetically conscious of the bond of race.

The Guild is doing a national work very quietly but effectively.

HOURS OF A DOMESTIC.

Here stands a man who claims that the factor which most strongly weighs in inducing the domestic to turn to factory work is the question of her hours of work. Apropos of this he recalls to our mind the domestics' union recently formed in New Zealand. These maids have served an ultimatum upon their mistresses. They want every night free after half-past seven except Wednesday nights, and they want work to cease on Thursdays and Sundays at two in the afternoon.

They are willing to be in at ten as a rule, but on the Thursday holiday they demand a latch key until twelve. They have compulsory arbitration in New Zealand; and, if the mistresses balk at this, they threaten to bring them before the Arbitration court. It will be noted that the chief point in the program is a fixed hour for stopping work.

This, says the eastern editor, is precisely what I have been venturing to tell my lady friends for years. The grievance which bites into the hearts of the average domestic servant is that she has no time to herself. She is never mistress of her own leisure. She cannot finish her work, and then go out to enjoy herself, as can her sister who works in a shop, a restaurant or a factory. The shop girl and the factory girl have every evening at liberty; the domestic servant gets only a couple of evenings, often in a grudging fashion, and feels that she is in a certain extent under espionage while she is out spending her own time and her own money.

Consequently, if the mistress is going to compete with the shopkeeper for the best class of girls, she must meet this competition in the matter or fixed hours and personal freedom. That counts for quite as much as pay. It will not be convenient; it will often require the hiring of more help; but it seems to be the only way to get good domestic servants.

LECTURE ON INDIA.

An interesting lecture on India was delivered recently by Mrs. James Harcourt before the Young People's Guild of the First Presbyterian church. The Guild attended in large numbers.

Mrs. Harcourt spoke at some length upon the customs, beliefs and home-life of the natives of the Central States. A very interesting portion of the program was that descriptive of hospital work. A collection of minature Indian vessels and garments was shown to the audience. Mr. McEdwards, president of the Guild, presided.

THE EDITOR REGRETS.

"When I was city editor of the Virginia City Enterprise," remarked Mark Twain at a dinner in New York, "a fine turkey was one day left at the office.

"Turkeys were rare in that high altitude, and we all hankered after this bird. The proprietor, though, claimed it for his own. He took it home and had it cooked for dinner.

"The next day, as he was expatiating on the turkey's richness and tenderness, a letter was handed to him. He opened it and read:—

"'Mr. Editor:

"'Sir,—Yesterday I sent you a turkey which has been the cause of much dispute among us. To settle a bet, will you kindly ask your agricultural editor to state in tomorrow's issue what it died of.'"

FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION.

Professor Masson of Edinburgh, author of a compendious life of Milton, was once exasperated by the listlessness of a student in one of his classes. After bearing long in silence the young man's inattention, the professor one day broke off in the midst of his lecture and addressed himself to the student:

"May I ask, sir," said he, "whether you expect to pass this course?"

"I hae hopes, sir," answered the student.

"Then when the examination comes, sir, you will wish for notes on these lectures. What will you do for them?"

"I hae my father's, sir," was the reply.

MANITOBA ELECTIONS

The Manitoba general election has resulted in the return of the Roblin Government with a slightly reduced majority. It is not an easy matter to defeat a Government of any kind while times are good, and with only six members in the last House, the Opposition had to make extraordinary gains to win.

The defeat of Mr. Brown in Portage is to be regretted as he had shown himself in the campaign to be a very capable debator, and to have an excellent grasp of public affairs in the prairie province. One cabinet minister went down in the contest, and the Attorney-General was on the edge of the precipice. R. L. Richardson met defeat again. He probably was very little strength to Brown, as he has made himself a sort of a political Jonah.

Some features of the campaign were regrettable. The abuse of Rev. C. W. Gordon and other clergymen by both Roblin and Rogers is inexcusable. We do not believe that any clergyman should use his pulpit from which to campaign in an election, if he wants to take part in a contest let him come out on the platform and fight fair, but neither do we think that public men add to the dignity of their position or the credit of their party by calling anybody ugly names. It is the tactics of men too small for public positions. That Mr. Roblin should have uttered the statements accredited to him after the election returns were in would only be believed by those who know him. Some people have a recollection of a visit he paid to this city and his conduct upon that occasion, and so are not surprised that in the hour of his triumph he would prefer to be abusive rather than gracious.

Hon. C. J. Mickle has again weathered the storm and will probably resume the leadership of the Opposition. There are the usual rumors of fraud in the conducting of the election, but we shall await further particulars of just how it happened.

OUR SOUTHERN CITIZENS.

In its recent editorial on the Mormon question the Toronto Globe pays the following tribute to the intelligent industry of these Alberta settlers:

"As to the controverted question itself, there has been from the first a certain amount of misunderstanding. It has no reference whatever to the eligibility of the Mormons as settlers. They make an excellent industrial community from which the surrounding settlers may learn many useful and practical lessons, particularly as to the feasibility and advantages of industrial cooperation. Much the same kind of lesson was taught in the early history of southern Manitoba by the Mennonite settlers there, and for what they have done and the influence they have exerted in this way both Mennonites and Mormons are entitled to the lasting gratitude of the whole country. They are peaceful, law-abiding, intelligent, and patriotic-apricot—in fact, are in the aspects they present to society as worthy citizens as any to be found in Alberta. So far there is no difference of opinion and there can be no controversy."

The moral or religious aspect of the question should not cost our Eastern friends any more worry than the industrial phase of it. A man is known best by how his neighbors speak of him and those who live near the Mormon settlers in Alberta know them to be law-abiding citizens whose morality will compare very favorably indeed with that of any other community in the province.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Alberta roads are wide enough to pass without a law, so says Rosenzil.

The Alberta government has a surplus. All their money was not spent for roads and bridges in High River and Rosebud.

"Keep in the middle of the road," is the motto of the Alberta legislature. Turn-to-the-right Borle was turned down.

Billy Bennett is here with his great show. This is not the same Bennett who toured the West in 1902 and Fowler, Pope and Lefurgy are not with this troupe.

The opposition in the Manitoba election were done up Brown.

There will be more work in Canada this year than there will be men to perform it.

To say that Dan Hiebert was delighted at the returns of the Manitoba elections is putting it pretty mild.

DAVIS ON THE HUDSON ROUTE

Western Senator Demolishes Motion That the Straits are Ice-Bound, and Deals With the Question "Where Does the Money Come From".

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—In the senate this evening Senator Davis in speaking of his resolution on papers relating to the Hudson Bay route said that there was a feeling in the west that there was opposition in the east to the development of this route because the east might lose some of its trade. Senator Davis thought there was no need for this feeling as all routes would find trade enough through the growth of the country. He complained of the bargain made some years ago with the predecessors of Mackenzie and Mann by which 125,000 acres of land per mile were to be given to a railway to be built to Hudson Bay. Under the terms they had been able to build the portion of the line that would pay beyond a doubt, that to the Pass and having got their land for this had not built on. They should not have gotten any land until they had built the whole line.

Saving in Freight.

Senator Davis pointed out the saving the Hudson Bay route would make in freight to the people of the west. The saving in moving the crop and cattle produced this summer would more than build the whole of the four hundred miles remaining to be completed. The road should be built as a colonization project if nothing else. It has been shown that there was a great area of good land to be opened up on the route. There were a hundred and seventeen million acres of land capable of being cultivated for wheat in the west. The crop raised would amount to five hundred billion bushels. It was the greatest farming area in the world and would provide freight for the Hudson Bay, the National Transcontinental and all other routes. Senator Davis gave figures to show the shortening of the distance to Europe from the west by the Hudson Bay route. If it were opened up for the four months of the year ending with the middle of November that was all the company asked.

Hudson Straits Navigable.

There was no doubt the Hudson Straits were navigable. Countless whalers had made the voyage safely and profitable. Up to 1903 the vessels of the Hudson Bay company had made 700 voyages through the Hudson Straits to various ports and had lost only two vessels. The route had been found so safe the Hudson Bay Co. had long ago ceased insuring them.

It was no argument against the building of the railroad to say that it would lie idle a portion of the year. A good deal of money had been spent on the canal system and the St. Lawrence channel which were not working every month in the year. Senator Cosgrain had taken a good deal of satisfaction in calling attention to the fact that there were icebergs to be found in Hudson Bay and Straits. Senator Davis did not think this sort of debate was for the benefit of the country any more than it would be for him to tell about the number of icebergs that could be found in the Straits of Belle Isle, and even in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Replying to Senator Cosgrain's statement that the Hudson Bay Co.'s ships always passed in and out of Hudson Bay in September, Senator Davis gave dates from Hudson Bay log books for the past hundred years showing that sailing vessels had gone in as early as July 10th and generally by the end of July and the beginning of August. He gave dates from voyages of whalers and trading vessels to show that the route was available for steamers generally by the first of July each year.

The Same Old Cry.

Senator Power had objected to the people of the east spending the money of Canada on a route which would deprive the east of business. Well, the west was getting tired of this cry of the east spending money for the west. So far the east had the better of the bargain and the future would increase the benefits for it would only be a short time before the west would be paying the most of the interest on the money borrowed for the intercolonial railroad and the canals of Canada. The Hudson Bay route should have been opened up before and be in commercial operation now.

Sweeping Changes In Postal Laws

Postal Action of U. S. Congress With Regard to Law Relating to Publication of Newspapers Etc.—May be Repealed.

The report of the Joint Postal commission, presented at the last session of congress to liberalize and repeal so that body its conclusions on the operation and effect of the existing law relating to the second-class mail matter and what changes, if any, should be made, has been made public.

The commission makes a number of sweeping amendments, and, subject to a return to the postal service and has embodied in a measure embodying such changes as it thinks ought to be made. Among the most important additions to existing law as regards second-class matter embodied in this measure are the following.

A newspaper or other periodical may be in part composed of advertisements, which are permanently inserted in, or attached to the same, but such advertisements shall not constitute more than fifty per cent of the superficial area of any issue of the publication, nor shall any advertisement be printed on card, cloth or any substance other than paper, nor upon paper of greater weight than the text of such publication.

Any issue of a newspaper or other periodical may be composed of parts or sections, but all such parts or sections shall be made the same size, form and weight of paper, and shall, when taken together, form one complete and indivisible whole. All provisions of law applicable to a newspaper or periodical shall apply equally to each and every section thereof.

When a regular issue of a newspaper or other periodical a supplement may be included or folded.

Supplements shall not be printed on any other substance than paper, nor except in the case of maps and plans illustrative of the text, shall be of different form from the main body of the publication. No supplement shall be composed of or contain advertisements, but the same shall be confined to matter germane to the regular issue and essential in order to complete matter left incomplete in the main body of the publication.

The proposed law refuses the second-class rate to periodical publications containing wholly or substantially of fiction.

With each issue of the newspaper or other periodical the publisher may mail at the second-class rate of postage samples of such issue but not to exceed 10 per centum of the total number of the copies of each issue mailed by him to actual subscribers as the same appears by a sworn statement of such issue to be submitted to the postmaster at the office of mailing.

The appointment of a postal appeals commission in the postoffice department is provided for, to consist of three members, at least one of whom shall be a person who has had actual experience in the conduct of the publishing business and at least one of whom shall be learned in the law and a member of the highest court of some state or territory of the United States or the district of Columbia. The commission is to enter upon its duties upon the first day of next July.

The object of this commission is to afford the proprietor or publisher of any newspaper or periodical publications, the opportunity for the admission which to the second-class of mail matter has been denied by the Postmaster General to appeal to it, and which commission shall hear, consider and determine such appeal, with respect as well to matters of fact as matters of law.

Authority is given the Postmaster General to require an opinion of the commission regarding questions of law respecting classification of mail matter and the right to admission to the second-class.

If in the judgment of the postmaster general the class privileges of any publication should be suspended, revoked or annulled, he must submit the case by petition or by information to the commission. Publishers and proprietors are to be given due notice of application to the commission together with the grounds upon which such suspension, annulment or revocation should be made. Persons to whom such notice is given are required to answer such rule, petition, or application and the commission is empowered to hear the case and render a decision.

The findings, determination, decision or judgment of the commission upon any appeal from a refusal to admit second-class publications or for the removal from the second-class or the suspension, annulment or revocation of its second-class privilege, shall be final and conclusive.

DIED IN HIS CELL.

Albert Fonner, Arrested at Medicine Hat, Expired Suddenly.

Medicine Hat, March 7.—Albert Fonner, section boss at Bowell, was arrested on Saturday charged with falsifying his stores account and thereby defrauding the men working under him. Some twenty complaints were filed. Three were proven and Fonner was sentenced to a month in the guard room at Lethbridge. During Tuesday night he took sick in the cells and died yesterday. It was though he had taken poison but a post-mortem examination showed that death resulted from a hemmorhage of the stomach and the coroner's jury brought in a verdict in accord with the facts in the case.

TRIED TO SHOOT UP TOWN.

Geo. White, Filled With Intoxicants, Created Some Excitement.

Medicine Hat, March 7.—Geo. White, giving his address as Calgary and stating that he has just come from Edmonton, tried to shoot up the town last night, while on a spree. He was disarmed by Constable Green after firing one shot from a revolver. It took six citizens to carry him to the cells. He attempted to lay out Chief of Police Mickleson. By the time the chief had split his lip, blackened his eyes and laid his ear open he saw his mistake. He got six months for resisting arrest and one month for carrying the revolver.

J. S. Ross, one of Calgary's most popular bankers, has left for the coast to open a branch of the Union bank at Vancouver, and also at Prince Rupert.

Chickens and Making it Pay

First.—You can't keep chickens without first getting a wife, assuming, of course, that you are of the sex that takes a wife, says George T. Hughes, in the February "Cosmopolitan" Magazine. No more man going to business all day, with only his night and mornings, Sundays and Saturday half-holidays to devote to his hens, can succeed with chickens without a woman to help him out. And she must be nearly as enthusiastic as you are. If she's like that Connecticut girl who wanted to get a divorce because her husband insisted on bringing his prize-winners into the kitchen to wash their plumage, you must give up either the chickens or the girl.

This preliminary having been arranged, make up your mind that if you are going to win at this chicken game you can't neglect any detail or take any Chances. You've got to make every move count. You must buy in the cheapest market and sell in the dearest.

Essentials as I have found them are:—

1. Start with birds, not eggs. Buy from a reliable breeder the kind you decide to keep—just as good a pen as you can afford. Save money anywhere but here.

2. Hatch your own eggs in an incubator—don't bother with hens. And if you have bought a good pen, properly mated from a reliable man, your eggs will hatch better than any you can buy.

The incubator catalogs are full of testimonials of people who get 90 per cent. hatches. Youll be lucky if you get 60 per cent. But the quicker the eggs get from nest to incubator and the less they are shaken in the process the larger the hatch. Later, when you know more about incubation, you can buy eggs in New York and hatch them in Colorado if you wish to. Better not begin that way though.

3. If you will insist on buying eggs for hatching right at the start, don't expect to pay twenty dollars a hundred for them and make money from the resulting broilers. You'll lose instead. Six dollars is about the maximum price you can pay for a hundred eggs and make profit and that's pretty uncertain. You can raise your own eggs for less than six cents a-piece, even with the high prices for seed in cities.

4. Don't count on a profit from table poultry alone; least of all from broilers. Don't count on a profit from eggs alone; it isn't safe. To get results under the handicap of inexperience, you will have to have a market at the highest retail price, for all the roast eggs you can raise and for all the surplus cockerels as broilers or roasters, and for the old hens after they have laid through two seasons.

5. This restricts your choice of a breed as those generally classed as "general purpose" fowls; the Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes, or American Reds. Some day, doubtless you can learn to coin money out of Leghorns or Brahmas, but not at the start.

Rec. and Finance Secretary—F. A. Cooper.

Treasurer—Norman De Lorne.

Inspector—John Wolf.

Twenty three members were enrolled last evening and as the employees of this craft in the city are numerous it is expected that Local 58 will rank as one of the high organizations. Owing to the scarcity of hall room the question of securing a place for meeting was left in the hands of a committee.

THE AMBITIONS OF THE EQUITY SOCIETY

This Farmers' Organization is Rapidly Gaining Ground.

W. J. Keon, secretary of the Canadian Society of Equity, limited, stated to the Bulletin that the society was booming. The farmers have awakened at last to the efficiency of the equity plan. Organizers of the society report a very successful canvass, and though the fees are doubled it has in no way diminished the applications for members.

The official organ begun under favorable prospects. The first edition of 2,000 copies will be increased the week to 3,000.

The stock of the company has been nearly all sold. The prospectus is plain and the payments so easy that no difficulty has been experienced in selling the shares.

The hay market of Edmonton, it is said, is practically in the hands and control of the society and it is claimed the cut market has been raised 3c. a bushel, directly attributable to the work of the Equitable Society. Another raise is expected shortly. The society is at present shipping a car a day. The society claim that within a year all the farmers' markets in Alberta will be in the control of this organization.

FOUR TRAINS PER DAY.

On the Canadian Northern Sounds Pessimistic.

The Vermilion Signal says:—A. E. Howard, of Heath & Howard, hardware and furniture dealers, has returned from a business trip to the Manitoba capital. Mr. Howard reports that in conversation with the traffic manager of the C.N.R. he was informed him that there would be two trains daily each way this year over the road between Winnipeg and Edmonton, a fast train which will stop only at divisional points and the largest stations intervening, and the present passenger train running slower and making all the stops. This is in view of the heavy traffic expected this year which it is anticipated will be larger than any in the previous history of immigration into Canada. Mr. Howard is not known just how soon the new service is to be inaugurated.

TO CONFER WITH GOVERNMENT.

Council Committee to Back Up Its Sunday Car Contention.

A committee composed of the mayor, Aldermen Daly, Gariepy, Wm. Pleard, and Walker, will confer with a government committee in reference to the city's contention that the question of prohibiting the operation of Sunday cars should lie solely in the hands of the municipality. Attorney-general Cross has a letter to the city council last evening, stated that he would arrange the meeting at the call of the council.

DREDGING LEASE.

J. W. Huff, contractor, president of the Huff Grading Co., has secured a dredging lease from the Dominion government for four miles along the north sank of the Saskatchewan extending up stream. Mr. Huff will install a $40,000 plant for the purpose of extracting gravel. It is not the intention of the company to increase the selling price of gravel as a result of securing the lease.

SELLEVUE TO THE FRONT.

Interest is already centering in east end view properties since the route of the street railway company is definitely decided.

Bellevue is particularly prominent. It comprises River Lot 28 and possesses many features to commend it to the buying public and which are bound to make it the site of many handsome homes. In fact the plans for a $15,000 residence have already been accepted.

Bellevue touches the city park on the east and commands a view both of the river and the city. The street railway will bring it within a few minutes re... section and before long it will have the electric light, water and sewerage. Cargrath, Hart & Co. and Moser & Ryder, the real estate firms handling Bellevue report a decided upward tendency.

EDMONTON WINS SECOND GAME

Strathcona Beaten 4-3 in the Second Game for Brackman-Ker Trophy—Victors Finish Strong--Referee Forbes Makes Good.

Edmonton pulled out with a 4-3 win over Strathcona in the second game of the Brackman-Ker trophy series, which was played at the Thistle rink last night. It was an uphill fight for the winners. Strathcona had decidedly the best of the play in the first half and when the resting point was reached the Scona seven were 3-2 to the good, and playing the better almost of their feet.

The second half saw the best hockey of the game, with Strathcona outpointing the locals for the first few minutes. Then the whole Edmonton team struck their gait and the local supporters had a chance to enthuse. After twelve minutes play, a great part of the time in Edmonton territory, Basford came through with a rush and almost tallied, and here the losers' defence weakened. They could not get the puck past centre and after a couple of minutes' scrimmage around the Scona goal Deeton sent in a very fast one that Humeston failed to notice.

With the score even up Edmonton kept up the leaning pace and five minutes later Campbell located from the side, putting Edmonton one to the good. Here's where about even in the remaining ten minutes, Campbell sending in one that hit the post and came out at rest or two in front close to Humeston's skate and unseen by the goal tender, was pushed into the net by Kent, who went in to score, delaying the game a couple of minutes while the goal guardian picked himself up and got in a fresh supply of wind.

The ice was rather soft and the hockey was of only fair quality, and not that in the first half. At the go in Strathcona looked all over like winners. Their defence was practically unbeatable and the forwards had a shade the best of it from Edmonton, but the whole seven "let up" about the middle of the second half and while the fireworks display was on Edmonton came through with championship hockey and clinched the victory.

For Strathcona McRae looked to be going the best all the way through. He was long on speed and handled his stick well, particularly in the first half. Raitt was always on the spot when the winners got through with the puck for three quarters of the game, but he fell dreadfully toward the close. On the line Mc-Leon was very noticeable with the speed but his handling of the puck could be improved on. Kent was not allowed to distinguish himself. C. Blomfield checked him too close. Campbell disappointed the crowd. He was not nearly as effective as usual. Ritchie was in evidence all right, but he was subject to attacks of stage fright when he got close in and missed at least two easy ones for goals. Humeston played his usual steady game all the way through and it wasn't his fault the victory went to the other fellows.

Ernerton was weakened by R. Blomfield being an absentee. Somerset was let out to rover and Sibbald, of the Intermediates, replaced Deeton. Basford was the only one of the septette who played up to form in the first half, and to his superior work the victory is largely due. In the second round, though, there was no discount on the sample of hockey they produced. Even Reserved, who has not yet completely recovered from his hospital vacation, outplayed his check. Grady was invincible—and he had them coming in from all quarters. Campbell showed all his old-time speed and shooting ability, and along with Kent carried off the honors on the line. Blomfield played aggressively all the way through, but his special attention to Kent prevented him starring as extensively as usual. Sibbald was a big reference for the first half, but the trip was too far for him.

W. Parks, of Wetaskiwin, had charge of the game and his work was the best seen here this year. He caught most of the offsides, and the rough house artists very seldom got the best of him. This feature of his work was recognized by the players and after the first half the game was decidedly cleaner. The only disagreeable feature was the mix-up in the first half between Deeton and Kent. The later resented the way Deeton shunted him into the wall and attempted to square accounts according to Queensbery rules. They were parted, however, before any blood was shed. The teams lined up:—

	EDMONTON.
	Grady
	Banford
	Powers
	Deeton
Campbell	Sibbald	Blomfield
	O
McLean	Ritchie	Kent
	Hampton
	McRae
	Raitt
	Humeston
	STRATHCONA.

This means at least another game will have to be played for the shield and possibly two—according to the decision on Friday's protested game, which will be handed out by the trustees on Saturday. The attendance was quite large, considering the lateness of the season.

LET CONTRACTS FOR SUPPLIES.

Three Tenders for Lumber Received Quoted Similar Prices.

The contracts for supplying some of the year's requisites for city work were let by the council last night. The commissioners recommended the the acceptance of the tenders for lead pipe connections and Gurney, Clazier & Co. were awarded the contract among the three, namely W. H. Clark & Co., Cushing Bros., and the Alberta Lumber Co. The recommendation was adopted.

Page Bros., sheep ranchers operating north of Maple Creek, had the misfortune to lose over two thousand sheep this winter and the balance they sold at $2 each to prevent a total loss.

Moose Jaw Exhibition company will erect an addition to the grand-stand that will provide seating accommodation for 600 people.

WINNERS AT BENCH SHOW

Calgary Canines Carried off Majority of Red Ribbon---Many Edmonton Dogs on the Street Which Should Have Been Shown.

The judges of the bench show have finished their work and awarded the prizes. The judges and officers of the association regret the absence of the larger breeds, as the Mastiffs, St. Bernards and Newfoundlands.

Many of the dogs which won the premier prizes are from Calgary and it is plain a kennel club was not formed in Edmonton any too soon.

mayo for Kinistino in the motion, and he would then support it.

Ald. Gariepy also moved that the Jasper lane be another 66 feet in extensions.

Ald. Walker suggested the extension of Namayo to Alberta so as to reach the Grand Trunk yards, which would be a good feeder, and Ald. Manson moved to square accounts of Syndicate.

The mayor questioned the advisability of laying down the proposed extensions on the ground that they would be built under the direction of a succeeding council, to draw attention, too to the fact that it would serve to promote speculation and thereby increase the value of property in the district beyond the reach of the workingmen for whose benefit the extensions were proposed.

Ald. Gariepy said it was entirely a matter of policy, and Ald. Manson declared all the property in question had already been secured by speculators and others.

Ald. Smith was the only member opposed to defining the policy of extension and the motions carried.

Wheat From Yukon Laid on Table

OF THE FEDERAL PARLIAMENT

Greeted With Applause--Samples Show What the one Time Frozen, Wilderness Can Produce--Hudson's Bay Railroad Project.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—When the House met today Mr. Alfred Thompson, M.P., of the Yukon, was warmly applauded when he laid on the table of the House a sample of splendid wheat grown at Mayo, a settlement in the Yukon. The producer had informed him that in five years his crops had not suffered from summer frost and that besides wheat he had grown crops of barley, oats and potatoes.

CANADA BROADENING

It was fitting that the tribute to the agricultural capabilities of the Yukon should be followed by the announcement that the Government was considering means for the construction of a railway to Hudson Bay. Both were tangible and unquestionable evidences of how Canada is broadening in useful and adaptable area, and the ringing applause which greeted each was splendid testimony to how far Canadians have travelled since their native land meant to them only half a continent of frozen wilderness annexed to a cluster of fruitful provinces in the valley of the St. Lawrence waterway and along the Atlantic seaboard. Canada is broadening from a fringe of settlement along the borders of the unknown into a country splendid in useful expanse and recognised resource. And with the material expansion has come an expansion in the Canadian's thought of Canada, a readiness to believe in her resources, a faith to believe in her possibilities and a practical enthusiasm to accomplish her destiny. Ten years ago a prophecy of "wheat from the Yukon" would have brought dubious ridicule upon the adventurer who presumed to forecast such an unlikely product coming from the land of the midnight sun; ten years ago the advocate of a railway to Hudson Bay was regarded with indifference and occasionally with ridicule.

Yesterday the wheat was produced in the House of Commons and the Premier announced that the project for a railway to the Bay was under consideration of the Government.

CZAR SAYS HE IS SATISFIED

With the New Russian Parliament He Believes Good Work Will Be Done if His Ministers Are Followed

St. Petersburg, Mar. 7—Parliament did not meet yesterday pending the reception of M. Golovin, president of the lower house by Emperor Nicholas, which took place today. His majesty declared himself "thoroughly satisfied" with the first session of the house and assured the president that he and the ministers were inspired by the best of feelings towards parliament and hoped that its work with the assistance of the legislative projects which the ministers had prepared, would be beneficial to the country.

MOTHER'S GRATITUDE TO ZAM-BUK.

IT CURED HER BOY OF PAINFUL SORES.

Nothing is more unpleasant to the eye and more painful to the sufferer than boils and ulcers. At this period of the year many adults suffer acutely from these painful outbreaks. When boils, ulcers, etc., occur on children it is pitiful to see the little ones suffer. Mrs. E. Parsons of 50 Duke St., Hamilton, is fruitful for what Zam-Buk did for her little boy when in this pitiful plight. She says:—"I wish to express my gratitude for the benefit my child received from the famous Zam-Buk Balm. He suffered from Spring eruptions and than boils broke out on his neck. I tried blood purifying remedies, salves, and ointments of all kinds but nothing seemed to do him the desired good. The boils got worse and became o loathsome and unsightly that I could not send him to school, as some of the boils and ulcers could not conveniently be covered. About this time a sample box of Zam-Buk was given to me and we tried it. The small sample did him a little good, so I bought a 50 cent box. The result was really amazing. Inside a week's time the boils had begun to dry up, and in a very short time indeed every one of them was healed."

Zam-Buk is a sure cure also for eczema, scalp sores, ringworm, poisoned wounds, chronic ulcers, chapped hands, cuts, cold sores, cracks, festering sores, eruptions and pustules due to blood disease, etc. It stops bleeding and cures piles, fistula, etc. Is antiseptic; an excellent "first aid." Every home and farmstead should have a box of Zam-Buk. All druggists and stores at 50 cents a box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 4 boxes for $1.50. Send 1c. stamp for trial box.

THE NECESSITY ON PURE SEED

Subject of Addresses Given at Seed Fair Yesterday Afternoon by W. C. McKillican, Representative of Dominion Branch, Ottawa.

At the Seed fair yesterday afternoon there was a large attendance of farmers and other visitors. The main feature of the afternoon was the address of W. C. McKillican, representative Dominion seed branch, Calgary, on the Importance of Good Seed.

Mr. McKillican in opening emphasized the need of good seed to raise good crops. Good seed gives the brgin a good start and is of great advantage. The law of heredity is as applicable to seeds as it is to stock breeding. There is now a very little really pure grain grown. The question of changing seed from heavy to light land and vice versa has many advocates. There is no advantage unless you get something better. There is always a danger in changing that you bring in seeds that you don't already have. There isnt any need for changing if reasonable care is taken and the crop is suited to the land on which it is grown.

Good seed should be of some good variety and pure. Stick to standard varieties, let some one else try the fads and fancies. Red fyfe seems the standard variety in the north but some farmers like earlier ripening varieties. Fall wheat is coming more into prominence and Alberta red will command top notch prices. Each variety should be pure as mixed samples fill no place in the market. Both wheat is demanded for best fruit making and in this case hard wheat spells the flour for that purpose.

Seeds should be free from weeds and should be germinable—seed that will grow. The commonest cause of absence of germinating power is frost. It is impossible to tell by the look whether seed will grow, until tested. One way to test is to count out a number of average kernels and put between blotting papers. Keep these moist for five days or so and then you can determine what per centage is good. A soil test is perhaps a better one. Samples sent to Ottawa will be tested free of charge. And now a seed testing laboratory has been established at Calgary, where any grain addressed "Seed Laboratory, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Calgary, will be tested free. Seed grain should be large and plump, the latter essential being more necessary than the former. The smaller or shrunken kernels can easily be fed to farm poultry or stock but even if fed it would be more profitable than using such.

Good seed can be procured by a more thorough use of the fanning mill. Every farm should have one. Much can be done in keeping the noxious and coarse fields for seed. A third method is the breeding of grain by hand selection. In this way the best heads are selected in the field, keeping in mind the trueness to type, the excellence of the straw and of the roots. Put these on specially prepared good and clean land, say a quarter acre and from this next year select the best again. After three years of this course a certificate is granted by the department, of which the speaker will give further information.

Mr. Woolford of Carstairs, D. W. Warner, Clover Bar; and others followed in discussion.

Mr. Warner repudiated the theory that damp weather was productive of soft wheat. He would not have our wheat deteriorate into soft wheat. In the dampest years his wheat had grown hardest. He spoke strongly in favor of subsurface seed bed packing. The seed bed should be firm at the bottom, the furrow instead of the top. The weeds germinate and can be killed. The grain is held in the soil. He recommended the wheel packer but this could not be procured in this country. He advised the disc drill or the shoe drill, set hard anything to pack the under surface and still leave the top loose.

LEMIEUX'S BILL

Providing for Compulsory Investigation of Labor Disputes Gives Rise to Unsuccessful Attempt of Opposition to Block it.

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—The entire session yesterday was spent on Mr. Lemieux's bill for compulsory investigation of labor disputes. Unable to shelve the measure the Opposition have settled down to systematically blockading it, clause by clause in committee. But the suave courtesy of the minister of labor is imperious. He neither loses his patience nor his eye to business. His popularity keeps an effective body of fighting lib-erals always on hand, and his serious purpose takes the wind out of many a talkative obstructionist.

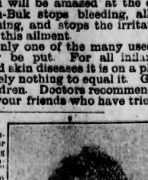

PILES

To get relief from the agonising pain of piles just take this simple course. Apply a little Zam-Buk balm, either with the hand direct or on clean lint, and lie down for a short spell. Do it at night! You will be amazed at the ease which follows! Zam-Buk stops bleeding, allays pain, soothes the aching, and stops the irritating itching so common in this ailment.

The cure of piles is only one of the many uses to which Zam-Buk may be put. For all inflamed places, for cuts, bruises and skin diseases it is on a plane by itself. There is absolutely nothing to equal it. Good for the tender skin of children. Doctors recommend it. Nurses daily use it. Ask your friends who have tried it.

GRATEFUL FOR RELIEF.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, of 477 Green-wood Avenue, Toronto, says:—"For four years I suffered acutely from bleeding piles. During that time I spent an immense amount of money on "remedies" and doctors' prescriptions but I got no ease. Zam-Buk was different to everything else I had tried and it cured me. I am grateful for the cure, and as I have never had piles once since, I know the cure is permanent."

(Photo of Mrs. Taylor.)

CURED AFTER 8 YEARS.

Mr. Neil Devon, of Webbwood (Ont), says:—"I was bothered for eight years with piles and nobody knows what I have suffered. I tried a sample of Zam-Buk and the result was so pleasing that I secured a good supply. Zam-Buk cured the piles from the first and now I am cured. I am thankful, indeed, for my cure and gladly give you permission to publish my case."

Police Investigated Alleged Poisioning

Found No Complaints Along the Athabasca of Posioned Bait or Loss of Dogs From Such Cause.

Ottawa, Mar. 1—Some time since reports were published at Edmonton tnat poison had been put out by trappers along the Athabasca river and that a tribe of Indians had been reduced practically to starvation because of their dogs having eaten the poison and died. The Mounted Police investigated the reports and the result of their investigation is practically that no signs can be found of any poison having been laid out nor any complaint made by the Indians or half-breeds in the district mentioned on the subject.

Constable Rockwell was sent on patrol along the Athabasca down to Pelican Portage, a distance of 225 miles down the Athabasca from the Landing. He visited all the trappers along the river as far as the Portage Lake trail ,100 miles below the Landing and went across to Portage Lake 4 miles from the river to visit an Indian encampment there. Owing to inability to secure food he was unable to proceed to Pelican Portage. In consequence he returned to the Landing from Portage Lake. He made enquiries enroute from all the trappers along the Athabasca and they all informed him that they had never heard of any poisoned baits and that they never had any dogs poisoned. He examined the fur in their possession and in every case found the marks of the trap on the front legs of the pelts. During the trip he made several trips inland bt could no see any sign of poison and found absolutely no such complaints as had been reported current. Constable Phillips who in company with Constable Aitkin patrolled from Fort Saskatchewan to Fort McMurray on Athabasca River reported similar results. He left Fort Saskatchewan on December 30 and travelled by way of Lac La Biche, Saddle Lake, Heart Lake, Whitewood Lake, Jack Fish Lake, Little Jack Fish Lake and Willow Lake. He returned by way of Lac La Biche, Saddle Lake and Andrew, while in Fort McMurray and during the trip both ways enquiries were made wherever trappers or traders were found but no single complaint was made of dogs having been lost nor any single instance reported of poisoned bait having been seen.

While at Fort McMurray, Colin Fraser, the well known trader of Fort Chipewyan arrived enroute to Edmonton. Mr. Fraser had not heard of any complaints from the Indians of any poison having been found or of any dogs having been poisoned. From information received at Fort McMurray it appeared that Mr. Von Hammerstein who had reported the alleged poisoning, and the supposed straits of the Indians in consequence, was met by Mr. John McDonald, chief guide on the Athabasca River. "Mr. McDonald" the report says, "had to supply Count Von. Hammerstein and party with provisions to take him to the Pelican Rapids. Mr. McDonald also sent his son with the count to guide him through the Mountain Rapids free of charge."

C.N.R. IS AFTER ONT. CHARTER

Bearding C. P. R, and G. T. R. Lines in Their Dens---Connee Desires all Railway Routes Fenced---Merits of Ross Rifle and Lee-Enfield.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—The Canadian Northern Railway passing here under the name of the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway Company, is getting busy in Eastern Canada and asked the assent of the Railway Committee of the House this morning to construct the following lines through Ontario. The scene of the operations is not the wild and untapped districts of Northern Ontario either, but the thickly settled countries of Central and Southern Ontario which have been the inquestioned stamping ground of the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk for decades. Unlike the course of empire and regardless of the traditions of Canadian railways the present progress of McKenzie & Mann is to be from the prairies toward the sunrise. The Ontario branches included in this program, are doubtless designed as links in an eastern sytem designed both to afford ample eastern connections for their western lines and at the same time to provide food for reflection to their two great competitors, who secure in the eastern field, have been doubling energies to invade the western territory, which the Canadian Northern had marked for its own.

2. The Canadian Northern Ontario Railway Company, hereinafter called "the Company," may construct the following lines of railway:—

(a) from a point on its authorized line near Washago to a point on Lake Huron at or near Kincardine;

(b) from a point on its authorized line at or near Arnprior, southerly to a point at or near Gananoque.

(c) from a point on its authorized line at or near Pembroke, southwesterly to a point on Lake Ontario between Toronto and Bellevi..e.

(d) from a point on its authorized line between Toronto and Ottawa, norht-westerly to a point on the Georgian Bay at or near Collingwood or Owen Sound;

(e) from a point on its authorized line at or east of Toronto, westerly passing near or through Toronto, Hamilton and London to a point on the Detroit River at or near Windsor, with branches therefrom to St. Thomas and to a point on the St. Clair River at or near Sarnia, and a branch or loop passing north of Toronto;

(f) from a point on the Niagara River, northwesterly, passing through or near Hamilton to a point on Lake Huron at or near Goderich;

(g) from a point on Lake Erie west of Port Colborne, northerly passing through or near Brantford or Berlin to a point on the Georgian Bay;

(h) from a point on its authorized line at or near Washago to a point on the Georgian Bay east of Collingwood;

(i) from a point on its authorized line north of Montreal, westerly to a point on its authorized line in the county of Leeds or Lanark.

JAMES AFTER THE RAILWAYS

James Conmee, M.P., introduced a bill to amend the Railway Act by forcing railway companies to fence their entire rights-of-way. The present law," he said, worked against the farmer who wanted to recover damages for stock which wandered onto a railway and was killed.

CURIOSITY ALLAYED

Mr. Lennox, of South Simcoe, evinced a curiosity to know whether W. T. R. Preston had written letters to English papers setting forth the advantages of South Africa as a field for immigration. He directed his query to the Minister of the Interior and was informed that the gentleman in question was not in the employ of that department. His inquisitiveness being still unsatisfied, the Premier informed Mr. Lennox that he would make inquiries in the matter.

"WEAPONS OF WAR."

The remainder of the afternoon and most of the evening was occupied by Opposition gentlemen trying to settle among themselves the merits and demerits of divers and sundry species of small arms for military purposes.

Colonel Samuel Hughes, Opposition member for Victoria and Haliburton, had heard or read or understood that someone had said or written something reflecting of the efficiency of the Ross rifle, the arm with which the Canadian troops are supplied. Whereat the valiant Colonel ro e [illegible] ed out seventeen points of advantage of the Ross rifle over its nearest competitor, the Lee-Enfield.

This drew Colonel Worthington, also an Opposition member from Sherbrooke, to the defence of the discredited weapon.

It remained for Mr. Northrop, Conservative member for East Hastings to butt into this little family difference. He sided with Col. Worthington, ridiculed Col. Hughes, and patriotically tried to deflect the antagonism of both toward the president of the Ross Rifle Company on the ground that that indigentleman.

On the whole Col. Hughes appeared to have the advantage of knowing what he was talking about. Politically, too, he figured much more consistently than those of his fellow high-protectionists who devoted themselves to proclaiming the inferiority of a Canadian-made gun.

BLOW TO RANCHING INTERESTS

D. J. Wylie, M.L.A. for Maple Creek in Saskatchewan district, a prominent rancher, in a Regina interview said the men who have suffered the greatest loss are the large ranchers who made no preparation to feed their stock. He and many others had plenty of hay put up and when the first frost and snow came they were prepared with it and his stock are in fair shape. There were many such cases in the Maple Creek district, but there is also great loss and the cattle have got scattered through the south country. Those which drifted into the sheep country died in thousands, the picking being too bare for them to subsist. The spring break up will largely determine the extent of the seasonal loss for among those surviving are stock which will not live through a cold wet spring, and it will therefore, be some time yet before the loss can be estimated.

Mr. Wylie thinks that the result of the heavy blow to some of the ranching interests will be that ranching will be abandoned in territory which the old settlers have always regarded as unfit and too speculative for the stock raising industry as conducted by the large ranchers who are heavy losers. The country outside of what is known as the forty mile belt will be utilized for mixed farming, and this can be carried on very successfully. The experience of the season shows clearly that a change from former methods must be adopted with respect to stock raising in some districts.

VEGREVILLE.

The Ladies Aid of Warwick held a very successful social at the schoolhouse on Friday evening. Good music, recitals and songs were rendered by local talent. The feature of the evening was the club swinging by Miss Camwell. The house was crowded to the doors and a goodly sum realized.

The Russian store that was burned here last Sunday morning, was owned by Mr. Watts of Edmonton, he having bought it about a week before the fire. There seems to have been no insurance on the building or the goods.

Opposition Is Troubled in Spirit

AND WHINES A SINGULAR WHINE

Because the Insurance Commission has Has Shown Itself to be Solely a Judicial Commission Free From any Political Interference.

GALLEY THREE.

Special to the Bulletin.

Ottawa, Mar. 1.—Mr. Haughton Lennox of the South Riding of Simcoe, arose today with troubled spirit and voiced a plaint from the Opposition regarding the Insurance Commission, or at least the lack of relationship between the Insurance Commission and the Department of Justice.

The Dissapointed Opposition.

Several days ago Mr. Foster was informed by the Minister of Justice that there had been no written communication between the department and the investigating council or the commissioners since he accepted office. This information was a grievous disappointment to some of the honourable gentlemen directly concerned and who apparently entertained the hope that they could parade before the country as men persecuted by a political opponent.

Grieving Because They Were Not Abused.

The soreness of spirit of Mr. Lennox bore a remarkable similarity to that displayed by Mr. Foster on the previous occasion, and made certain, whatever may have been lacking in the general impression, that it was signally disappointing to the Opposition to find that the Minister of Justice had not been a directing and controlling force behind the Insurance Commission during its investigations.

No Suggestions Given.

Mr. Aylesworth in reply gave Mr. Lennox some information in addition to that furnished Mr. Foster a fortnight since when he had informed the ex-minister of Finance that all communication between himself and the commission had been by word of mouth. He now informed Mr. Lennox that none of these communications had partaken of the nature of direction or suggestion as to the matters which the Insurance Commission should investigate, as to the Witnesses who should be examined, or as to what lines of enquiry should be taken up.

Thought Minister Should Have Suggested.

Mr. E. Gus. Porter of Hastings, followed Mr. Aylesworth and took the somewhat peculiar position that if the minister of justice had not directed and suggested to the Insurance Commission the course they should pursue then the minister had been guilty of negligence of his duty. He carried the argument one step further toward the ridiculous by saying that possibly for this reason the commission had not been conducted solely for the purpose which was considered in its appointment.

None of the Minister's Business.

The premier followed Mr. Porter and took the ground that the minister of justice, would have had and could have had no business to interfere with the commission by way of suggesting to them what course of enquiry they should pursue or what subjects it would be advisable for them to investigate. The commission having been appointed by the governor-in-council and received their instructions by order-in-council. When those instructions were received the commissioners were not free to accept instructions, suggestions, or dictation from anybody, and it would have been an infringement on the proper independence of that commission for the minister to have offered them suggestions as to what course they should follow.

Supposing the Minister Had Suggested!

And supposing the minister of justice had presumed to do what the Opposition gentlemen now blamed him for not doing! The outcry which they would then have raised would have been much louder than the one they now raised. At present they complained because the minister of justice had not directed the Insurance Commission. But if the minister of justice had been found to have done that which they now claim he should have done their wailing would have been that they were being persecuted by a political commission rather than examined by a judicial commission.

Mr. Foster closed the debate in a singular proposition. In the first place, he said that he absolutely agreed with the premier that the minister of Justice should not have instructed the commission; and in the second place, that he agreed too with Mr. Porter's contention that it was the business of the minister to instruct the commission. Thirdly, he spent twenty minutes in a dexterious attempt to distort language to prove that the minister had instructed the commission. His dexterity made three things plain. First, that the report of the commission was singularly displeasing to Mr. Foster; second, that it was quite as singularly displeasing to him to find that the commission had been in no wise lately free and independent; and third, that he was prepared to resort to any species of mischief-fraction to cast a doubt upon the freedom and independence of that tribunal.

Men are at work taking out the ice from the manufacturers building on Victoria park, Calgary, which will be used in connection with the sale and shipping next month.

The Presbytery of Red Deer is opening a mission field in the Fallen Timber district and sending an extra man into the country north of Three Hills.

The Natural Gas company, of Calgary, which has been drilling for gas near the city, has reached a depth of 165 feet, and expects to go to a depth of 1,500 feet. In boring for oil at Medicine Hat the Canadian Pacific Railway company struck gas at a depth of 1,200 feet.

ANOTHER HOIST FOR FRANCHISE

Application of Northwest Gas Co. for Renewal to be Considered by Council Committe---Ald. Walker Talks Conservative and Side Points.

The city council has no intention of granting the application of the Northwest Gas & Oil Co., Ltd., for a renewal of its natural gas franchise, before first insuring itself as to its position. It does not necessarily follow that there is any antagonism evinced toward the application, but the granting of franchises is new work for the council and in consequence the aldermen object to hurrying the application through.

Ald. Walker was responsible for the second hoist given to this question. He moved at the meeting of the council last night, that it be referred to the committee on new industries—Aldermen Healy, Picard and Walker—for report. Incorporated in the motion was the power to engage Mr. Wallbridge, solicitor, to draw up a new franchise.

The question was discussed at some length. It was placed before the council in the commissioners' report dealing with the application of the Northwest Gas & Oil Co., Ltd., for a renewal of its franchise, the petition of certain ratepayers against the renewal of the franchise and the application of the International Heating & Lighting company for a franchise to operate an artificial gas plant.

Will Not Accept Terms.

Ald. Gariepy started the ball rolling by intimating that he understood the company would not accept the terms of renewal recommended by the commissioners.

The particular terms to which the company objected was that which provided for the retention of power by the municipal to purchase the company's plant at any time.

Ex-Mayor Short addressed the council in the interests of the company. He first read over the names of the shareholders in the company, all of whom, with but one exception, were residents of the city.

Have Sunk $37,000.

Mr. Short stated that the company had already expended $37,000 in the furtherance of the project to secure a supply of natural gas, and, with the assurance of assistance from the Dominion government, the company intended to continue prospecting. He explained that the reason the work was at present practically at a standstill, was due to the resignation of the engineer in charge of the work.

Want Exclusive Franchise.

The company objected to giving the city permission to take over the plant at any time after it was in operation. To consent to an agreement embodying such a clause would place the company in a position to lose the $37,000 which had already been sunk, for, in purchasing the plant, the city would be required to pay only the actual cost of the plant plus ten per cent.

What the company wanted, he said, was an exclusive francsine for 15 years. This would give the company an opportunity to recoup itself. The company would not object to the city sinking wells.

He further explained that when the original franchise, which recently expired, was granted, the clause, giving the company only two years in which to have its plant in operation, was inserted to prevent a wild-cating scheme, namely, the sale of the franchise to some other speculators.

Would Manufacture Artificial.

Mr. Short said the company also desired the privilege of manufacturing artificial gas as an alternative, if a paying supply of natural gas was not secured. He gave it as his opinion that in two years the coal fields in the vicinity of the city would be developed to such an extent as to provide cheap coal for the manufacture of artificial gas.

Ald. Picard wanted to know if, failing to find natural gas at the end of two years, the company would undertake to supply artificial gas. This question was not answered. Ald. Picard, however, favored a renewal of the franchise on a basis similar to that of the expired franchise.

Officials Interested.

In moving to submit the matter to a committee of the council Alderman Walker took occasion to point out that the city had as yet had no experience in the granting of franchises and to hastily grant a franchise of any kind opened up the possibility of tying up the city for fifteen years. He referred to the fact that the city solicitor and one of the commissioners were connected with the company. In reference to this the mayor explained that when the commissioners' report on the question was framed neither of these gentlemen were consulted.

The motion to hoist was carried unanimously.

Before disposing of the matter Ald. Walker asked Mr. Short if it was the company's purpose to supply natural gas for fuel purposes only. Mr. Short replied that this was the original intention.

HOCKEY PLAYER KILLED.

Mixup in Match Results in Death of Factory Town Player.

Cornwall, Ont., March 7.—Owen McCourt, better known as "Bud," died this morning at 9 o'clock as the result of injuries received last night at the hockey match played here between the Ottawa Victorias and Cornwalls. Just before McCourt passed away, Chas. Masson of the Ottawa team was arrested at the Hotel Dejuette by Chief of Police Smith on a charge of assault with intent to do bodily harm. The warrant was issued only this morning by Hill Campbell, J. P., and now that McCourt is dead the charge will be amended. Coroner Hamilton is having a jury empanelled and will hold an inquest today.

McCourt received his injuries only in the second half of the match, which was steadily growing in roughness up till this incident occurred. McCourt and Throp had a little mixup and this was followed by several slashes with sticks. It is claimed that Throp struck McCourt, who started to retaliate when he was struck over the head by Masson and fell on the ice unconscious. Throp about this time received a very bad cut over the head from a Cornwall player, and was unable to continue. McCourt came on again for a short time, but he had to quit and becoming unconscious, was taken to the hospital, where an operation was performed in an attempt to relieve the pressure on the brain, but the brain was bleeding and he passed away without regaining consciousness.

Only a Month Till Big League Ball Teams Move to Practice Grounds.

The vanguard of the major league ball teams are off for their spring training grounds. The prosperous season of 1906 has spurred every club owner to put forth his best efforts to have his team in the race for championship honors this year, and doubtless the biggest sum of money ever spent on a training season will be expended in the hope of having the various teams in the best possible condition for the hard campaign to come in the summer months.

The New York Giants the last of the month are going from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast to begin their practice. That will be the longest trip ever taken by a ball club in the spring. The world's champion White Sox are going to the City of Mexico, which will establish a record as the point furthest south a team ever has gone for early training.

After all the teams shape up just about as they did when they finished the last season. The different managers again will depend on the men who have been delivering the base hits and swell catches for them for past seasons. A wealth of new material will be taken along for a trying-out. The chances are that if all of the teams remained near home and trained as faithfully as possible in a northern climate they would finish the season with about the same standing.

Each owner is watching for a chance to get some advantage over his competitors, and so the caravan to the southland will be done over again at a cost of thousands of dollars.

Unless the minor league recruits drafted and purchased to bolster up weak spots in the big league clubs, turn out vastly different than they have for the league next season probably will have the same aggregations as the principal contenders.

The training quarters of the clubs will be as follows:

American League.

Chicago	City of Mexico
Detroit	Augusta, Ga.
Cleveland	Macon, Ga.
St. Louis	Marlin, Texas
New York	Atlanta, Ga.
Philadelphia	Dallas, Texas
Boston	Little Rock, Ark.
Washington	Galveston, Texas

National League.

Chicago	West Baden, Ind.
Pittsburg	Hot Springs, Ark.
Cincinnati	Marlin, Texas
St. Louis	Fort Worth, Texas
New York	Los Angeles, Cal.
Brooklyn	Jacksonville, Fla.
Philadelphia	Thomasville, Ga.
Boston	Thomasville, Ga.

PRACTISING NEW STYLE OF BALL.

From California come stories that Elmer Strickletf, the little Brooklyn twirler, is busy practising a new style of ball, which he calculates to mix up with his "spitter," to the everlasting consternation of National League batsmen Strickletf probably has better control of the spit ball than any other twirler. At that he has always maintained that it was taking mighty big chances to use the spit ball in a close game with men on bases. Jack Chesbro lost an American League pennant for New York by using a spit ball in the ninth inning with a runner on third base. The ball was a wild pitch, as it is likely to be, and the runner from third base scored before the catcher could convey the flying sphere.

According to the stories from California, Strickletf is trying to improve on his ball. Last year while the Highlanders were down south practicing up for the season Elmer was experimenting with what he called a "spit flocker," or, in other words, a slow spit ball. He claimed it would be the most effective kind, and, besides, easier for the catcher to handle. It is very likely that this ball is the ball he is experimenting with out on the coast now, which has led to the report that we are to be favored with another pitcher freak.

The spit ball was a boon for at least three pitchers, while it probably spoiled another. The spit ball made Strickletf, Harry Powell and "Big Ed." Walsh, of the White Sox. It is this style of delivery that has made all three famous. Jack Chesbro was a star twirler before he took up the wet style of delivery. He was successful with it for one season, but last year was unable to hold down his own. It has been said that the spit ball ruined Chesbro's pitching. Jack, however, says it was not the spit ball at all. He claims he got cold in his arm while pitching for the Highlanders on a rainy day.

BASEBALL AT TACOMA.

Tacoma, Wash., March 7.—The Northwestern Baseball league is likely to go ballooning if the state Sunday closing law is enforced in Tacoma, and if the Seattle schoolmarms are successful in prohibiting all forms of amusement on the Sabbath. It is said that the baseball magnates would not care to enter upon a long season without Sunday baseball, because the receipts of that day are as large as those of the entire week for game, and they can't grant the loss of this revenue.

S. T. Keeler has sued George Shreeder and the Tacoma baseball association to regain the construction and maintenance of a ball park at Thirty-sixth street, asking $500 damages.

The complaint states that, owing to the desirability of that part of the city for residence purposes, the property is on constantly increasing value, which, however, will be impaired by the presence of the baseball grounds.

ANXIOUS TO MEET PILLING.

E. L. Pilling, the Cardston wrestler, who has been looking for a match with any and all comers for as much as $500 a side, has had his bluff called by Chas. Moth, the American mat artist, who has been in Edmonton since January. Moth has written the Cardston man, asking for a date for a meeting at any style of wrestling, for any stake purse at any point Pilling prefers to perform in this province.

BASEBALL.

Medicine Hat team has hired John Coulins for business manager of the team for 1907.

A ball team that can beat anything in the west is what Saskatoon fans are yelling for.

One Saskatoon business man announces he will contribute $500 to help the town secure a crackerjack team.

Manager Netrauheimer and business Manager Cousins, will hobnob with the big American baseball magnates at the opening of Cincinnati's two million dollar hotel on Monday.

Medicine Hat fans expect to see the team in town by May 12th, unless Duluth and Calumet hold them to games practically bargained for on May 12th and 14th.

Seventy minor league players will be given a trial by National League clubs this season. Cincinatti has twenty of them, and Pittsburg eighteen. New York has only three.

Down Saskatoon way they are talking a Saskatchewan professional league, the winner of which would stack up against the champions of the Western Canada League for the Canadian championship.

Medicine Hat has ordered the suits and supplies for their team. The outfit consists of 13 suits, 12 d. b. coats, 12 coat rolls (or catcher's), 24 hats, 3 hat bags, 1 mask, 1 body protector, 1 dozen practice balls, 1 extra (mascot) suit. It is expected these will cost about $300.

A. E. Humphries, secretary-treasurer of the Lethbridge Athletic Association, received a letter yesterday from John W. Morrison, of Calumet, stating that several more players have been signed by him for the professional ball team. He says that he won't talk, after the fashion of some of the other managers in this league, who have the pennant already won, but will "saw wood."

BASEBALL EVERYWHERE.

Reporter: We understand that a letter has been received by the secretary of the baseball team, from Vermilion, asking the Fort to join in a league which is to be formed to include all the towns from North Battleford to the Fort, and asking them also to send a delegation to Vermilion to attend a conference to be held at Vermilion on March 15th, to complete the formation of a league, etc. The team are not in a position to arrange this matter themselves, having no funds to speak of, and unless some of the town people come to their assistance, the Fort will have to decline the honor of joining the league. This would be a great pity, as there is no doubt that the Fort, if it cares to exert itself, can put a team in the field that could hold its own with anything in the league, and it would also bring the name of the town before the eyes of the public, and let them know what kind of stuff the Fort people are made of.

NEW MATERIAL AT WINNIPEG.

The Winnipeg club has the contracts of seven players already in hand. Only three of them are from members of last year's team. Third Baseman Daly Sutler, first baseman Ludeau and Pitcher Terry and Cunningham have returns and their contracts with the signatures attached. With Outfielder Larry Piper, who is expected to sign today, these will probably be the only members of last year's team here this season, though Lee Von may return. Pitcher Joe Sporty will not come to terms, and Outfielder Sam Mansoe is said to be asked for elsewhere.

Three new men have been signed already and negotiations are under way with half a dozen more. The new men under contract are Left Fielder Traeger, who played with Fargo two years ago; Second Baseman Dunn, who was with Grand Forks at the same time, and a shortstop who, though a young one, is said to have the appearance of a corner. This shortstop, by the way, is about the only untried man in the lot.

The Winnipeg club will secure several of the Lake Linden players of last year, as these players will be divided among the other clubs since the Lake Linden franchise has been revoked. The Winnipeg club may secure Kurke in this manner.

Mr. John Niblock, of Calgary, after a trip over the Wetaskiwin branch to the city, stated the work of extending the eWetaskiwin branch over the Battle river will be proceeded with at an early date. The road is now at Battle river. A large bridge is being placed across the river which will not be completed until well into the summer. Mr. Niblock speaks with great satisfaction of the country through which this branch is going. He thinks that it cannot be surpassed in the west, or any place in Canada.
